

I used services of Christian Pettersen for my real estate transaction in West Palm Beach spring 2010. During the whole process Christian performed very professionally.

He did excellent job in finding an apartment fulfilling my requirements. He also negotiated a price I was pleased with and took care for all the formalities to close the deal in a proper manner.

Even after the closing Christian has been extremely helpful to solve all kind of daily practicalities. I can sincerely recommend Christian Pettersen for real estate transactions."
